

Recruitment information for the first and second rounds of different programmes.

Round I:	Round II:
1–12 July - Registration By July 19 - Entering a recommendation letter 23 July - Information July 25–August 5 – Interviews August 8 - Announcement August 9–12 - Entries of persons qualified	July 29–August 28 - Registration by September 4 – Entering a recommendation letter September 6 - Information September 9–September 20 – Interviews September 24 – Announcement September 26–27 - Entries of persons qualified

Recruitment for the 2024/2025 academic year in the disciplines:	Round I	Round II
Economics and Finances	x
Socio-Economic Geography and Spatial Planning		x
Social communication and media sciences	x
Management and Quality Sciences		x
Legal Sciences		x
Sociological sciences		x
Pedagogy		x
Psychology		x
International Doctoral Programme in Cognitive Neuroscience Cognes	x
Interdisciplinary Doctoral Programme Society of the future	x
Interdisciplinary Doctoral Programme in the domain of Politics, International Relations and Security		x

Psychology - Doctoral students beginning their training in academic year 2024/2025 will be obliged to receive training in tutoring. They will also be obliged to carry out part of the 60 hours of teaching practice in tutoring. The place of practice, the exact number of hours and the formula for the implementation of practice will be determined by the Head of the Psychology course.